

LIBRARY ANT-ics!

“Catch the Reading Bug” Programs

This year’s free programs are suitable for the whole family.
Everyone is welcome!

Tuesday, June 17, 7:00 p.m. – Mr Elliot’s Big Bug Collection – Learn bug facts and see the big bug collection of Mr. Elliot, who studied bugs for his job!

Wednesday, July 2, 4:00 p.m. – Puppets with Pizzazz presents “Bug Off!” See the ant-ics of our favorite puppeteers in a fun new bug show!

Thursday, July 17, 10:30 a.m. – The Wildlife Center of Virginia will be presenting “Scales and Tails,” a look into the world of scaly critters.

Thursday, July 24, 7:00 p.m. – Joan and Mack Swift, known as Tales in Tandem, will be telling stories from the Appalachians through the Jack Tales, ancient tales from the Celtic Islands brought here by our early settlers.

For more information call the Highland County Public Library at 468-2373.

Summer Movie Ant-ics!

We’ll be showing free movies in the Mountain View Room of the library. The movies are G and PG rated. Free popcorn and drinks will be available. We’ll also be continuing our monthly Family Movie Nights. See the full summer movie schedule for details.
